AN UNPARALLELED CITY EXPERIENCE

PRIVATE DINING IN THE SKY

THE DESIGN

Guest rooms celebrate transitions and transformations — from day to night, from active to restful — with sleek, luxurious materials used in unexpected ways, evoking the feeling of stepping into a sumptuous residential loft.

Our design for the guestrooms focuses on creating a Dark, Quiet, Cool oasis, with soft lighting throughout - and also transitions, at the touch of a button to stunning panoramic floor to ceiling window views that bask the room in natural sunlight.

We eliminated lights on outlets and electronics, included double blackout curtains, and ensured that walls have super-high sound transmission class ratings.

THE DRESSING AREA

The dressing area is surrounded by custom millwork panels stained in contrasting light and dark hues that add visual contrast.

The millwork wall has a place for everything—a 5-foot-wide wardrobe with integrated lighting and suit/gown-height rods, angled, lit shoe shelves; customized drawers and cabinets containing Equinox branded workout equipment and clothing in the guests' sizes; a laundry hamper; minibar with a black marble counter and niche surfaces.
